Prairie-to-Pine Regional Meeting

Warmest thanks to the MANY people who are volunteering for the Regional Meeting by baking, cleaning up after the Retirees Banquet or doing needed jobs during the weekend. We are very grateful.

Thanks to Dorothy S. who will attend the Meeting as CPUC’s representative while Richard B. gets a knee replacement. Our prayers and wishes for a speedy recovery are with Rick.

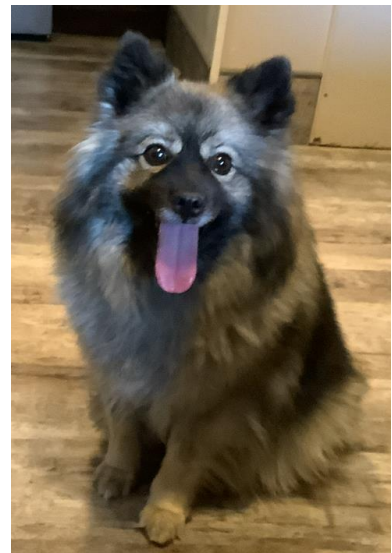

Knox United, in Brandon, is a strong affirming voice in the community around 2SLGBTQIA+ justice. Read about the struggle for representative books in the Brandon School Division. Being Public, Intentional and Explicit matters!

A Pastoral Letter from the Rev. Craig Miller:

During a meeting of the Brandon School Division's Board of Trustees on Monday evening, 8 May, a former school trustee who identified herself as a "concerned grandmother" made a presentation advocating for banning books in our school libraries addressing 2SLGBTQIA+ content. Well, that's one way to ensure our children and teens read all the books mentioned.
