Nakba Day Commemoration

On May 15, Palestinians around the world commemorate 75 years of having lost their homeland. Nakba means “catastrophe” and in 1948, 700,000 people, in what is now Israel, either fled or were forced from their homes. Many Palestinian refugees abroad remain stateless to this day.

Join Christians and interfaith guests at Home Street Mennonite for a time of prayer and mourning, and to call for a just peace. All are welcome.

The Sandy Saulteaux is located on 36 acres of wooded parkland beside the Brokenhead River, one mile east of Beausejour. Among other things, Sandy Saulteaux is a ministry training centre of the United Church. Over the next few weeks, Sandy Saulteaux has a number of opportunities to visit, learn and be in this beautiful place.
