Worship Guest, Lindsay Brown

Lindsay (they/them), is a queer, non-binary educator in the Seven Oaks School Division, the lead facilitator of QUESO: Queering Seven Oaks, and a trainer with Diversity Essentials. Lindsay is actively involved in their local teachers' association and sits as a Member-at-Large on the Provincial Executive of the Manitoba Teachers' Society. They love film, their three cats, and early-morning Crossfit workouts.

In worship on Sunday, May 29, Lindsay will share their Gender Journey, including what being non-binary means to them. This will be a great introduction to the workshop the CPUC Affirming Ministry Team and Lindsay are planning for the fall of 2022. All are welcome (with their questions) during this open-hearted time of worship.

Opportunities at CPUC:

- 1) Leadership Team Vice-Chair/Chair-Incumbent: If you are a good listener, enjoy being part of decision-making and want to contribute meaningfully to your faith community, consider putting your name forward for Leadership Team. We currently seek a Chair-Incumbent to join our lively, good-natured and wise Leadership Team. Interested individuals, contact Shanon at: shanonstewart(at)hotmail.com.
- 2) Ministry and Personnel Committee: Seeks two additional members. M&P members offer a listening ear and the voice of wisdom to paid staff and members of the congregation. They negotiate contracts with staff, do annual reviews, have a voice on the Leadership Team and play a key role in the well-being of any congregation. If you are excellent with confidentiality, keep an ear to the ground and are a strong cheerleader for our congregation, this could be the role for you. Contact Shanon if you are interested.

Thanks....!

To those who made a 2022 donation to the Memorial Garden. Donations to the Memorial Garden are especially welcome in spring for the purchase of annuals, hardy prairie perennials and eventually (we hope) the addition of a garden water fountain.
