Worship Guest, Lindsay Brown

Lindsay (they/them), a queer, non-binary educator in the Seven Oaks School Division, will join us in worship on Sunday, May 29.

Lindsay will share their Gender Journey, including what being non-binary means to them. This will be a great introduction to the workshop the CPUC Affirming Ministry Team and Lindsay are planning for the fall of 2022. All are welcome.

Opportunities at CPUC:

- 1) This is Your Church: Do you have a project or idea you'd love to share and launch? We'd love to hear it and support it. Contact Dawn (contact info bottom of e-letter) or Shanon at: shanonstewart(at)hotmail.com.
- 2) Group Visit to Oak Table. Many CPUC folks haven't yet seen the New Oak Table space at Augustine United. Sign up for a mid-week visit to the space and hear about the Director's plans for the next expansion. Contact Cindy to sign up. Time to be finalized later.

Pride Parade – Sunday, June 5th, 11am – Come and Walk!

This is our chance to be Public, Explicit and Intentional as Affirming people. Gather with other affirming folks to walk in the Pride Parade. Please join us. Details to follow in Announcements next week.

Saturday, June 25

10:00am – 4:00pm

The Delightful 1justcity Fundraiser

Take yourself on a self-guided tour of Scotia Heights' most beautiful gardens, and afterwards, enjoy tea and visit the craft sale at St. John's Anglican Cathedral. For more information or to purchase tour tickets, visit the link below:

Thanks....!

To those who made a 2022 donation to the Memorial Garden. Donations to the Memorial Garden are especially welcome in spring for the purchase of annuals, hardy prairie perennials and eventually (we hope) the addition of a garden water fountain.
